The Daily Courant.

Saturday, October 26. 1706.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Oct. 26.

Vienna, Oct. 13.

ON Sunday last the Emperour with the Court went to our Cathedral of St. Stephen, where Te Deum was sung for the taking of the City of Milan, and for the further Progresses of the confederate Arms in Italy; the Foot Guards that stood drawn up round the Church making a triple Discharge of their Musquets, and the Artillery on the Walls giving likewise a triple Salvo. Tho' we have had no Advices directly from General Rabutin these four Weeks, there are Letters from Hungary which say he is marched with his Body of Troops towards Caschau, and has besieg'd that Place; but those that are inform'd what Condition that General's Troops are in, do very much doubt his having undertaken that Enterprize. The Roads in Hungary are so unsafe for Couriers to pass freely, that we have had no Letters lately from General Staremberg. The Districts of Presburg and Oedenburg are treating with Ozkay one of the Generals of the Malecontents, that they may gather their Vintage unmolested. The Princess Ragotski is at Prague, and has receiv'd order from the Imperial Court not to return hither The said Court perceiving they shall not be able to reduce the Malecontents this Winter, are contriving Means not only to recruite the Imperial Regiments in Hungary, but to send more Forces thither. Prince Eugene has written hither, that he shall not only maintain his Army in the Milanez at the Charge of that Country, but shall likewise raise considerable Sums of Money upon the Imperial Fiefs in Italy.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated October 29.

Paris, Oct. 22. The Elector of Cologne having taken Leave of the King and the Royal Family, set out from hence the 20th Instant to return to the Netherlands, well satisfied with the Honours he had receiv'd at Court: The King made him a Present of a Cross set with 6 large Diamonds, valued at 30000 Crowns. The Ambassador of Muscovy is likewise gone for Holland.

Amsterdam, Oct. 29. 'Tis advis'd from the Hague that by a Letter from Signior Bussi, the Pope's Internuncio residing at Cologne it appears his Holyness is disposs'd to confirm the Election of the Bishop of Paderborn to the Bishoprick of Munster, provided he be allow'd to appoint such a Person for his Vicar over the Catholicks in his Country as he shall think fit; in the Choice of which Person he will however have Regard to this State, and endeavour to make them easy. The States of Holland being principally concern'd in this Affair, their High Mightynesses can determine nothing in it till they have their Resolution. The East India Company have recall'd their Governour of the Cape of Good-Hope, and have appointed for his Successor the famous M. d' Assemberg, who in the last War with the Turks was the Emperour's Admiral on the Danube. The 14th of last Month M. Hetterman the Elector Palatine's Envoy, presented the following Memorial to the States.

High and Mighty Lords,

BY Virtue of the Treaty concluded with the Intendant, and ratified by the King of France, it was agreed, that the Dutchy of Juliers, for the Contributions that might be demanded of that Country, as well for the Time past as to come, during this War, should pay at Luxembourg yearly the Summ of 100000 Crowns, at the rate of 54 Sols the Crown German Money, which Agreement has hitherto been punctually perform'd: But the Chevalier Rougauet, the King's Councellor, residing at Maubeuge, demands, that the Contributions for Juliers which have been paid at Luxembourg, conformably to the said Treaty, should now be paid at Maubeuge, in French Money, because of the excessive Contributions which he pretends your High Mightinesses cause to be levied in the French Flanders, by which they would proportion those of the Territories of the Allies. The under-written Envoy, by Order of his Electoral Highness, desires your High Mightinesses to give Directions to your Intendant of Contributions, to make all the Representations possible to the said Chevalier Rougauet at Maubeuge, to induce him to recede from these new Demands. Hague, Sept. 14. 1706.

Sign'd,

J. H. V. Hetterman.

The States Receiver General (or Intendant) of Contributions has prevail'd with the French to keep to their first Agreement with the Country of Juliers; and the Enemy having made like new Demands of the Electorate of Triers, he is also likewise treating with their Commissaries to prevail with them to stand to their first Treaty with that Country.

Edinburg, Oct. 19. To Day the Parliament proceeded to the further Consideration of the Articles of Union, and the 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, and 14th Articles were all severally read, with the Minutes of the Treaty relating thereto, and were all discours'd on. The 15th Article was also read, and after reasoning thereon, a Debate arose about the Calculation of the Summ therein Mention'd, which Debate was adjourn'd to the next Sederunt. Then the Parliament was adjourn'd to Tuesday the 22d.
